

Management Software for Access Control and Time & Attendance (IDORSS-7530) Mini server up to 10 devices

Product Details

- Web Services based management software to synchronize any number of TouchEntry/FaceEntry devices on the network
- OS independent - works with most popular web browsers - no client software installation required
- Intuitive list-based user interface for, devices, users and reports
- Managed enrollment and automatic distribution of biometric templates and any changes in the data
- Centralized database replicates local databases in the units; access control is not dependent on network availability
- Reporting functions with export capabilities for events, access control and time & attendance
- Biometric templates are encrypted and stored in an encrypted database
- Based on Web Services
- Linux based server
- Works with most popular web browsers, from anywhere on the network
- No client software installation required
- Works on virtualized or physical servers
- Auto detection of device